

Send over
send over
send ____ friend
over!

Send over game rules:

Children on one side of line hold hands and call over a child from the other side of the line. If the child breaks open their hands when running over, then he or she can go back to the side they came from. If they do not break open the hands then they have to stay on that side.